

HAVE SOME FUN IN THE MILE HIGH CITY DURING THE DAY ON FRIDAY!

Both the Molly Brown House Tour and the Titanic Weekend Friday opening night are very near downtown Denver. To round out your day with some extra Denver fun, here are some ideas.

Vintage Shopping

For the thrifty and vintage clothing shoppers among you, join Shopping Aficionada Susie Reisser for Friday morning coffee and a tour of her vintage closet at her East Denver home. This will be followed by a carpoled excursion out into her well selected shopping destinations of interest to vintage costumers (including a fantastic fabric/trime shop.). She will have you back in time for the Molly Brown House tour if you have signed up for that. No charge; lunch on your own with the group. Contact Susie at sreisser@gmail.com to sign up.

Other Points of Interest Near Downtown Denver

If vintage shopping isn't your thing, check out other fun (some historic) spots near downtown Denver for an enjoyable time in the Mile High City :

Top highlights

<http://www.denver.org/what-to-do/must-see-denver>

Downtown Denver Self-Guided Historic Walking Tour

<http://www.denver.org/what-to-do/itinerary/detail?cid=42>

Historic downtown buildings

http://www.denverinfill.com/subpages_special_topics/downtown_denver_historic_district.htm

Historic Guided Tours

<http://www.denverhistorytours.com/index.htm>